ABOUT THE JOURNEY

WHO?

Nicholas and Angela Hammond, along with their sons Benjamin and Elliot, are the proud stewards of Finca Catalan de Las Mercedes, a historic coffee estate nestled in the Chimaltenango region of Guatemala. For over a century, the Hammond family has dedicated themselves to cultivating exceptional coffee beans, carrying on the legacy of this family-owned business since its inception more than 150 years ago.

WHERE?

Situated in the verdant hills of Chimaltenango, Finca Catalan de Las Mercedes stands as a testament to time-honored tradition and agricultural innovation. As custodians of this cherished estate, Nicholas and Angela Hammond are committed to preserving its legacy while embracing innovation and adaptation. Through reforestation and responsible land management, the estate strives to minimize its ecological footprint while promoting biodiversity and soil health.

Helping you make the best out of the beans!
